Final Score: Student passed _____ out of 6 scored sections.

Sharing Results with the student

- Emphasize what the student did right, and if the student received a passing score in any of the 6 sections, congratulate him/her.
- If the student passed in all 6 sections, express confidence that the student will ultimately pass the real citizenship test at his/her USCIS interview.
- If there were areas of weakness, offer suggestions on how the student might work to improve on them, and express confidence that, with time and effort, the student will eventually be able to pass the test.
- When the interview is done in front of a classroom, classmates can be invited to give their assessment of the student's performance. Again, it is important that the students are also emphasizing/confirming what the student did right, and if appropriate, sharing suggestions for improvement.
